Vasant Kunj, New Delhi

WEEK OF GIVING AND CHARITY

17/10/2011 – 22/10/2011

Dear Parent,

14th October 2011

As you are aware Bloom actively participates in various outreach programmes. These programmes help sensitize children to the deprived and specially abled in society. As a part of the week of giving and charity (17/10/2011 to 22/10/2011), the school has organized for the following,

- Collection of old toys, books, clothes, stationary, furniture etc., for GOONJ (www.goonj.org, a voluntary organization working towards channelizing the everyday necessities of life from clothes to school material)– lying as idle surplus in urban homes as a substantial economic resource for the poor in far flung villages of India. GOONJ donation / collection boxes will be placed in school. Students will lend support to the poor in rural India.
- On 22nd October 2011, there will be a display and sale of eco friendly products such as file covers, bags, fresh bakery products etc by Goonj and Akshay Pratishtan.
- Students of Bloom Public School will display diyas and pottery
- Students will visit an orphanage /Goonj /old age home during the week.
- All proceeds will go for charity.

We solicit your support and cooperation in our endeavour.

Thanking you,

Regards,

Student Council
