RHYMES FOR FEBRUARY & MARCH 2012

RAIN

Dripsy, Dropsy,
Pitter, patter raindrops
Falling to the ground,
Fast then slow
Until it stops
Oh! What a welcome sound.

Nrjh jkuh

Ckny vk, pedh fctyh

gok valjk cjl k ikuh
Ne & Ne ukph Nrjh jkuh A

I am a little snowflake

I am a little snowflake,
small and white,
When the moon is shining ,
I am sparkly and white.
When you see me falling,
Come out and play,
You can make a snowman,
With me today.

SEASONS

Spring, summer, autumn, and winter,
One by one do they enter,
Windy, rainy, cold and hot,
In them is an year caught.

SUNLIGHT

The sun shines bright,
And spreads its sunlight,
It changes its form,
Whether eve or a morn.
It plays hide and seek,
And at noon it is at its peak.

THE LION AND THE FOX

Once upon a time, the king of the jungle, the lion stepped on a thorn. The thorn went deep into his paw and it hurt badly. The lion could not walk properly. Hunting for his food became impossible. For many days , the lion went without food.

The lion saw a cave with a narrow mouth. The lion peeped in. The cave was empty. There were signs of some animal living in the cave who must have gone out to search for food. The lion hid in the cave waiting for the animal to return.

A fox lived in that cave. It used to go out in the morning and return in the evening. On that day also it came back after the sun had set.

The fox was very clever. It saw some paw marks outside the cave. It guessed that the lion or tiger must be inside the cave. The fox played a clever trick. It called out “Mister cave , why don’t you call me inside? If you do not call me inside, I will go away”. Hearing this, the foolish lion thought that the fox would really go away. So it called out in a gruff voice “Dear Fox, do come in please.” The fox recognized the lion’s voice and ran away. The foolish lion did not get any food.
