RHYMES FOR APRIL & MAY'11

LET US DO SOME EXERCISE

Turn your head from side to side,
Flap your arms like a birdie might,
Clap your hands, give me a smile,
Ask your legs to run a mile.

My Family

This is my home, open the door,
There you can see, mother, father and me
Mummy and papa are so much fun,
They are the best under the sun,
Grandpa and grandma are so jolly,
We are a happy little family.

WASH, WASH, WASH

Wash, wash, wash your hands,
With soap and water too,
Rinse your fruits and vegetables,
And make them clean too..

हमारे दोस्त

हाथों से काम हम करते
और मुँह से स्वाद हम चखते,
कानों से हम सुनते सब कुछ
सारी बातें , सारी गपशप
नाक हमारी बड़ी कमाल
साँस पहुँचाये मेरी मान
इन सबसे हैं आँखें महान
दिखाये हमें सारा जहान । ।

HEAD, EYES, NOSE, MOUTH

This is my head, this helps me think,
These are my eyes, they see and blink,
This is my nose, it helps me smell,
This is my mouth to eat my food well.

My Mummy

My mummy is lovely and strong,
She tells stories short and long,
Together we play everyday,
I love my mummy more than I can say.

STORIES FOR APRIL & MAY'11

THE TURTLE AND THE SWANS

Once there was a turtle who lived in a pond. Two young swans also visited the pond. They became good friends. The swans told the turtle stories of far off places they had flown to. The turtle would listen wide-eyed. The turtle had a bad habit of interrupting the stories with foolish remarks. The swans forgave the turtles for this because they were very good friends.

Time went by. One year there was no rain. The pond started to dry. The fishes and the other water animal also started dying. The swans were worried for their friend. One day they told the turtle that there was a lake fifty miles away with lots of water and food in it. But the problem was how would the turtle reach it. So the swans thought of a plan. They brought a small stick and told the turtle, “You hold the centre of the stick with your mouth, we will hold it at the two edges and fly you to the lake “.They warned the turtle not to open his mouth.

As they flew over a town, the people saw the strange sight. The children ran up to the roofs of the houses to see the swans and the hanging turtle. The turtle opened his mouth and said excitedly, “See everybody is looking at us”. As soon as he opened his mouth he fell to the ground and died.

TWO WISE GOATS

Two goats were crossing a narrow bridge, only one could get across at a time. One came from the north and the other came from the south . They met in the middle of the bridge. Each wanted to cross the bridge first. So they started quarrelling. After some time, one goat thought that it was useless quarrelling on that narrow bridge. She thought of an idea. She lay down and allowed the other goat to step over her and cross the bridge happily. Then she too, got up and crossed the bridge. In this way, both the goats crossed the bridge safely.
