STORY FOR THE MONTH OF JANUARY' 12

THE HUNTER AND THE PIGEON

One day some pigeons got caught in hunters net. One clever pigeon told the others not to panic. "Let us fly together and land elsewhere where the hunter cannot reach us." So they all flew together along with the net. They reached near a mountain where their friend mouse lived. The mouse with the help of his friends cut the net and set the pigeons free. The pigeons thanked the mice and flew away happily.
